Torrance Nine Whips South Bay Legion, 12-2

The Torrance Baseball club Sunday afternoon snapped back from their two previous consecutive losses and pounded out a 12-2 victory over Fred Millican's South Bay Legion nine.

Narbonne high school's ace left hander 15-year-old Paul Pettit hurled nine masterful innings against the invaders, allowing only six hits. He struck out 16 opposing batsmen while walking seven.

Terrace Seniors Wax Channel Heights, 28-13

Normont Terrace seniors scored 7 points in each quarter to defeat Channel Heights senior, 28-13, Saturday in the second half of a grid double-header played at the Terrace.

After Channel Heights' early first-period score, Normont's A. Sanchez tossed a pass to J. Ponce to even up the game. A pass from Garcia to Ponce gave Terrace a 7-6 advantage at the end of the quarter.

Garcia's passes, two to Murrin and one to Mayes, accounted for Normont's other three tallies.

Cisneros scored six of the points in taking a lateral from Murrin after one of the passes.

Outstanding for Normont were Garcia and Cisneros.

In the opening tilt the Terrace midlets walloped the Dana Strand mites, 31 to 0.

Cole figured in four out of the five Normont touchdowns. First he passed to Eggleston twice to score, then he took a pass from Hutchinson for six, then he ran 30 yards to tally.

Truse ran 30 yards for fifth Normont T. D.

Compton Against Navy

Compton College's Tartars, defending National Little College champions, open a 10-game 1947 defense of their grid crown Saturday afternoon when they engage the San Diego Naval Training Center on the Bluejacket's Hull field. Kickoff will be at 2 o'clock.

Compton's starting line will out-weigh San Diego with a 200-pound average as compared to 193. The Navy backfield average shadows the Tartars, 170 to 169, while the Comptonites hold a 188 to 185 advantage on the team.

No civilian personnel will be admitted to the Navy base to view the game.
